

DockFix Press & Media Kit

Thank you for using our DockFix press & media kit. This package contains brand assets for use in editorial coverage, corporate communications, and non-commercial promotional materials. Please review the guidelines below for proper usage of these assets.

Folder Structure

- Logo

Contains a high-resolution version of the DockFix logo in PNG format with a transparent background.

- Promotional Banners

Contains five promotional banners that can be used as article or press banners.

- Product Photos

Contains five product photos in total:

- App Screenshots: Two images showing the DockFix app interface.
- Dock Design Photos: Three images showing different docks made using DockFix.

- Feature Photos

Contains four individual feature photos highlighting specific product features or unique aspects of DockFix.

Usage Guidelines

- Editorial Use:

All assets provided in this kit are approved for use in editorial content—including articles, press releases, media coverage, and corporate presentations. This license covers both non-commercial and editorial publication (for example, publishing an article about DockFix).

- Alterations:

Do not alter, crop, or modify the logos or other key visual elements without prior approval. Minor resizing for publication is acceptable, provided that the integrity of the image is maintained.

- Attribution & Claims:

You may use these assets for any promotion of DockFix, as long as the use is not directly negative. Please note that you may not claim DockFix or any of these assets as your own work.

Copyright & License

- Copyright:

All content provided in this media kit is © 2025 DockFix. All rights are reserved.

- License:

These assets are provided under a license for editorial and non-commercial use. Articles, blog posts, press releases, or other editorial content that includes these assets is permitted. Any use for commercial purposes beyond editorial publication (such as in advertisements, product packaging, or commercial promotions) is not allowed without express permission. For any commercial use inquiries, please contact us at mail@dockfix.app.

- Restrictions:

You may not redistribute, sell, or license any of the provided images or logos to third parties, and you may not claim any of the work as your own.
